

Corporate Breakfast Series

I M C International announces the launch of the Leadership Hot Topics Breakfast Series for 2008 – 2009

An Open Forum on “The Glass Ceiling - Myth or Reality What it means to you”

Wednesday 26th November 2008

7:00 to 9.30 am
Tea Room QVB – Sydney

In today's climate organizations understand the power of women in senior roles. So why are talented women leaving the “Corporate arena” and setting up in their own business? Are organizations in grave danger of losing talent?

Open forum will focus on

- Open Discussion on defining the ‘Glass Ceiling’
- Identify the current challenges Women face today
- Identify strategies for retaining and developing emerging managers within the organisation
- Identify the current challenges and key strategies to assist Organisations in retaining talented women

What you will take away from this important forum

- How others have ‘Shattered the Glass Ceiling’
- Understand their experiences, challenges and triumphs
- Key Strategies to assist all stakeholders
- Knowledge on how to grow your senior career above the ‘Glass Ceiling’
- Support Network

Guest Speakers

Maurene Horder is CEO of the Migration Institute of Australia. As the ex CEO of the National Marine Safety Committee, Maurene's career spans both government and private sectors in education, safety, environment, manufacturing and the ACT House of Assembly.
