

contents

about the author	4
acknowledgments	5
introduction	5
part one: setting up	10
<hr/>
chapter 1: the advantages and disadvantages of being a consultant	11
chapter 2: creating a personal business plan	25
chapter 3 deciding where to work	42
chapter 4 getting the equipment you need to work effectively	56
chapter 5 getting official	85
chapter 6 knowing what to charge and managing cash flow	104
part two: getting business	135
<hr/>
chapter 7 fast ways to generate business	138
a chapter summary	152
chapter 8 cheap ways to get new business that rely on your existing contacts	153
chapter 9 ways to market yourself that help you build new contacts	162
chapter 10 other ways to market your services	176
part three keeping the business going	194
<hr/>
chapter 11 selling your services once you have a contact	195
chapter 12 keeping up the maintenance on your greatest asset - you!	208
part four practical appendices	217
<hr/>
appendix 1 essential templates	218
appendix 2 resources	232
appendix 3 words to watch out for - a glossary of terms	234
appendix 4 a selective bibliography	238